
Oshkosh '89

FROM JENNIES TO JETS

Photos by Mark Phelps

Jennies on the move, being towed from overnight shelter in hangars to the Antique flightline.

Skeeter Carlson flies his ultra-rare Curtiss JN-4 "Canuck," a Canadian-built Jenny.

Ray Brooks, World War I ace with six victories describes some of his early experiences with Jennies.

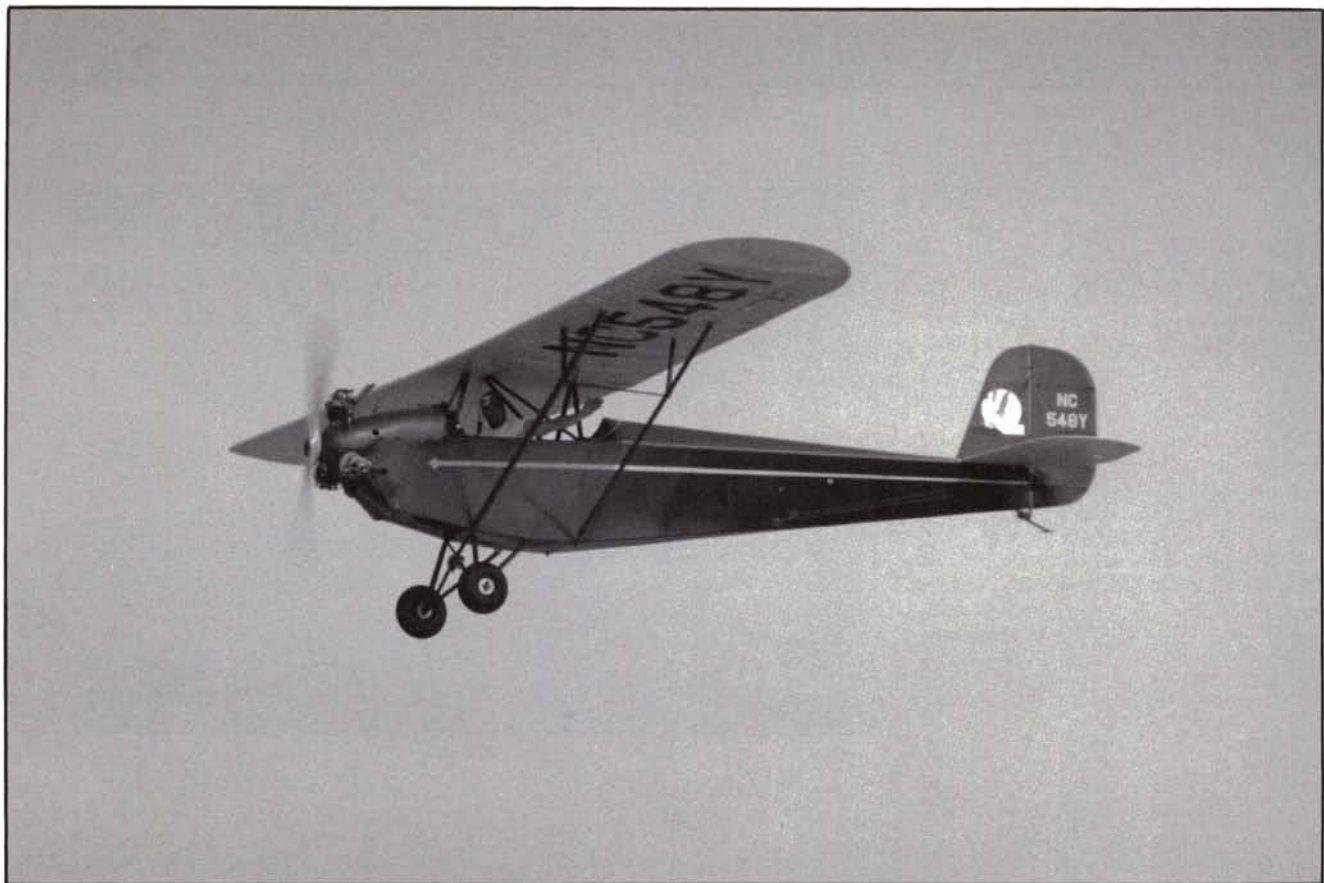

Wingwalkers are standard equipment with a Jenny.

Bill Schlapman's Taylorcraft attracts a youthful shade-worshipper.

Cub scouts?

The American Eagle during the Antique/Classic Parade of Flight. Owner, Gene Morris.

Susan Dusenbury gets a motorscooter escort to the Interview Circle.

1937
Price 25¢

You Can Bank on Karl Cert for Value